

RENAYE THORNBORROW

Renaye believes that all children deserve to own their magnificence and reach their fullest potential. She is leading a worldwide movement to bring life coaching and personal development to children between the age of 6-12 through her certified WISDOM Coaches and parent resources.

When faced with challenges and disappointments, most kids don't have the tools to handle them. As a result, they often get down on themselves or give up on themselves, developing beliefs that can hold them back for the rest of their lives.

Life Coaching isn't just for grownups. It's a game changer for our youth when they learn how to break through limiting beliefs and proactively create supporting beliefs to help them thrive. Mindset skills are the key!

Renaye is the author of The Adventures in Wisdom Life Coaching Program for Kids Curriculum™ - a powerful curriculum that uses coaching stories, questions, and activities to help children develop 27 mindset skills for resilience, self-esteem, confidence, self-leadership, achievement, happiness and so much more.

Since 2013 her company has certified WISDOM Coaches® in over 30 countries - helping coaches create a business they love as a life coach for kids while empowering children around the world.
